

Open until filled
3 positions

Class Teachers and Home Study Managers Elementary & High School

La Vida Charter School has several positions open and is looking for teachers that enjoy doing a variety of things and is comfortable with wearing many hats. These positions comprise of three main areas. The first is teaching a holistic, mixed grades class two days per week; plus teaching a specialty class; and thirdly organizing and meeting with students and parents to manage their home study programs.

Desirable candidates will bring love and excitement about their work as well as bring excellent organizational skills, personal accountability standards, possess digital literacy and abilities to engage and motivate students, collaborate with colleagues and parents. Applicants should have a living and working knowledge of the educational philosophies of Rudolf Steiner as well as being comfortable in public school environs and the State Standards.

La Vida Charter School offers a unique program of independent study supported by a child centered, culturally rich; strengths based on-site classes two days per week. Founded in 2001, WASC accredited, serving grades K through 12, with a maximum enrollment of 100, La Vida functions as a small school alternative for residents of Mendocino County and surrounding areas. The school is located on the beautiful and historic, 5000 acre, Ridgewood Ranch, Home of Seabiscuit, between Willits and Ukiah on Hwy 101.

Qualifications:

- Minimum requirements are a California Multiple Subject or Single Subject Teaching Credential. (Intern level are welcome)
- Experience in independent study and/or
- Waldorf Training is preferred.
- Special Areas of Expertise the school is looking for include strengths in: English Language Arts, Science, Spanish Speaking, Waldorf Training, Nature Loving, Art, and Special Ed

Skills:

- Demonstrated success in creating a differentiated instructional program.
- Willingness to further professional development in Waldorf Education and other educational techniques.
- Ability to collaborate with colleagues.
- Able to work at home.
- Possess strong personal accountability standards.
- Ability to take direction and promote philosophies of the school.
- Interest in working in a school community with strong parent involvement.
- Embraces and is proficient in educational technology.

Details:

.80 FTE to Full Time, salary negotiable, Health and Retirement Benefits accrue at 20 hours per week. Flexible time structures in a beautiful rural location are other benefits.

The year starts with a full faculty in-service the week of Aug 15.

Special training on the school's computer programs occur the previous week of Aug. 8 for a few hours. First day of school is August 29.

Contact:

Send a personal cover letter and resume with references to annk@lavidaschool.org
Ann Kelly,
Executive Director
11785 Orchard Lane, also
707-459-6344,
707-459-6377 fax.
www.lavidaschool.org